Tapescript

Every year about 40,000 people come to London to run in the London Marathon. The race is forty-two kilometres long and the runners go past several famous places in the centre of London – the Tower of London, Trafalgar Square, Big Ben and Buckingham Palace.

Some of the runners are professional sports people, but thousands of ordinary people run in the marathon too. Some of them wear funny clothes and collect money for different charities, like Oxfam and Save the Children. A few years ago, two runners even had their wedding in the middle of the race!

It usually takes the professional runners just over two hours to complete the race. But in 2002 Lloyd Scott completed the race in five days, eight hours, 29 minutes and 46 seconds! He was wearing a deep-sea diver's suit!

Tapescript

- 1 I've been here for a week, and I'm really enjoying my holiday. There are lots of things to see. You can never be bored here. Yesterday I took a helicopter flight over the city. It was amazing. This is definitely better than all the other places I've been to. It's really fascinating!
- 2 My friend says I imagined it but I'm sure I didn't. We were walking home after the cinema one night and it was dark so I couldn't see very well, but there was something under the trees on the other side of the road. It looked a bit like a big dog. But I'm sure it wasn't a dog. I've never seen anything like it.
- 3 It took me ages to decide. Finally, I only did it because all my friends laughed at me and said I was scared. Well, I was scared! You're in the plane for about ten minutes, then when it gets to the right height, you jump out! I've never been so nervous. It took about two minutes to get to the ground. It was an incredible feeling, but I don't think I want to do it again.

Tapescript

When he was 15, John Goddard made a list of all the things he wanted to do in his life. He wrote 127 things on his list. Now, 60 years later, he's done 109 of them. Here are some of the things he's done:

He's explored eight rivers, including the River Nile and the Amazon.

He's climbed 16 famous mountains – although he hasn't climbed Mount Everest yet.

He can fly a plane and he's flown in a balloon.

He's ridden an elephant and a camel.

He's learnt to ski and he can water-ski too.

He's written a book and he's learnt to play the violin.

He's taken photos of wild animals, like lions and cheetahs.

He hasn't been to the North Pole yet, but he's already visited nearly all the countries in the world.

Colin: I really like that jacket. How long have you had it?

Matilda: Oh, for about a month, I think.

Colin: Where did you buy it?

Matilda: I bought it at 'New World', you know, the clothes shop next to the bank.

Colin: Do you usually buy your clothes there?

Matilda: No, it's a bit expensive.

Colin: Have you ever been to the market in Queen Street?

Matilda: Yes, I often go there. I buy things like jeans and jewellery.

Colin: I got this T-shirt at the market. It was only £3. What do you think of it?

Matilda: I think it's nice.

A: ... and that's the news for this evening. Now here's Pamela with the weather details.

B: Thanks, John. Well, if you're going to watch the athletics in Manchester tomorrow, you'll need to put on some warm clothes. It'll be cloudy there tomorrow and very windy, with a maximum temperature of just ten degrees.
In the south of England we'll have a much better day. In Brighton it'll be foggy in the morning, but the fog will clear by lunchtime, and the afternoon will be bright and sunny. A top temperature of seventeen degrees is expected in Brighton. Not much sun in London tomorrow, I'm afraid, and the temperature won't get higher than fourteen degrees. There'll be thunderstorms over the city in the morning, and we're expecting some heavy rain during the afternoon and evening. In the northeast of the country ...

Eddie: I definitely won't study any more when I leave school. I'll try to get a job immediately and I'm looking forward to it. My uncle's a builder and he may be able to find me a job. I haven't got any special skills, but I like working with my hands.

Lucy: I'd like to work with kids. I might enjoy working in a school, but I'm not sure. If I'm in a classroom all the time, I might get a bit bored. I prefer being outdoors. I love swimming and running, and I'm good at different sports. Perhaps I could teach sport.

David: When I look for work, I'll try to find a job that's useful. I'd like to be able to help people, especially if they're ill. I may not earn a lot of money, but that won't be a problem if I enjoy the work.

Fiona: I'll probably go to university, but after that I don't know. When I get a job, I'd like to visit different countries and talk to lots of different people. I believe it's important to know what's happening in the world. I'm quite confident and I think I can express my ideas well.

Nick: Will you still live at home?

Girl: Yes, I think I'll have to live at home for a few years.

Nick: I think I might live abroad when I'm older. What about you?

Girl: No, I'm happy here. But I might move to a different city one day.
