Ana What time do you get up, Dan?
Dan From Monday to Friday I get up at half past six.
Ana Half past six in the morning! That's early. Why?
Dan Well, my school starts at seven o'clock.
Ana Oh. And what time does it finish?

Dan Twenty past twelve, so I get home at ten to one for lunch.
Ana What do you do after lunch?
Dan I do homework and watch TV. Sometimes I play football and basketball. Then it's dinner and I go to bed at nine o'clock.
Ana So you love the weekend. You can get up late.
Dan Not at all. On Saturdays and Sundays I get up at 6 o'clock.
Ana What! Six o'clock??!!
Dan Yes. Six o'clock. I have early morning swimming lessons.

5 She doesn't wear them because they're too special.

Audio Script Track 12

Annie
My hobby is shopping for clothes! Wow, you say. What a surprise – a teenager who likes shopping for clothes. Well my hobby's a bit different. I'm not really interested in the clothes you wear every day. My mum buys me those clothes. I collect old clothes from the 1940s. I just think the clothes from those years are so beautiful. It's quite difficult to find these clothes because there aren't many left but I know a few shops in London where I can still find them and I usually visit them every month. They are often quite expensive so my collection isn't very big. I have 8 dresses, 12 skirts and 6 pairs of shoes. Some of them are from my great-grandmother; that's my mum's grandma. I also have two really beautiful hats from her. I keep them all in a big wardrobe in my bedroom. I take them out about once a week to look at them but I never wear them! They're much too special to wear! Maybe when I'm older and I've got somewhere special to go ...

Maggie Ooh – smells good, Sally.
Sally Thanks, Maggie.
Maggie What are you cooking?
Sally Something special. Something different. It's for dinner tonight.
Maggie So – what is it? Come on – tell me!
Sally It hasn't got a name. I've got an idea for a great new dish and I'm making it.
Maggie Well OK then, just tell me what's in it.
Sally Oh, OK. Well, there are onions ...
Maggie Mmm ...
Sally ... and garlic too, of course.
Maggie Garlic, yes, I love it!
Sally And there are some tomatoes and some red peppers too. All cut into small pieces and fried together.
Maggie OK. Is it a spicy dish? Like, curry or something?
Sally Well, not curry, but yes, it's spicy. There are some chilli peppers. Well, a lot of chilli pepper, in fact!
Maggie Great. I love spicy food – mmmm! OK – what are you doing now?
Sally OK, well this is some meat, right. It's some steak, fried and diced.
Maggie OK – and you're putting it into the tomato and onion sauce.
Sally Yes – there we go. Now, we cook it for a little while ...
Maggie OK ...
Sally ... and now, the very, very special extra thing. See these beans? They're red beans – red kidney beans. I think they're delicious.
Maggie Yes, they are. Very tasty.
Sally And so I'm going to put the beans in too! See? Meat, and beans, all together in a nice spicy tomato sauce. It's my new idea for dinner!
Maggie Er, Sally?
Sally And we can eat it with some rice and with a nice mixed salad.

Maggie Sally?
 Sally Yes? What?
 Maggie Look, I'm sorry – but your food isn't new.
 Sally What do you mean?
 Maggie This is 'chilli con carne'. It's Mexican food, I think. It's famous all over the world.
 Sally Really?
 Maggie Yes. Sorry.
 Sally OK. No problem. Look – I've got another idea. I've got some mushrooms here – let's put them in too. Now it's different, yes?
 Maggie Great! So now we've got ... 'Sally's famous chilli con carne – with mushrooms!!'
 Sally That's right! Yay!

 Dave Sure. Let's have a look.
 Olivia Well this is my sister Beth and her husband Pascal.
 Dave He looks really nice. Is he French?
 Olivia No, he isn't. He's Irish.
 Dave Pascal's not an Irish name?
 Olivia That's right. Well, his Dad was French, and his mum was Scottish. He's got three sisters. Two of them have got French names, and only one sister has got an English name.
 Dave Oh, I see.
 Olivia Hey look. Here's a photo of me with my other two sisters. That's Lucy and Freda. You know Freda, of course.
 Dave I do. She's my sister's best friend.
 Olivia Let's see who's next. Ah that's baby Luke.
 Dave Who's he?
 Olivia He's my cousin. He's only 8 months old. He's the son of my Aunt Sue and Uncle Ron. Look, in this photo he was 8 weeks old!
 Dave He's so cute. Was he the star of the wedding?
 Olivia Well, Beth was the star but Luke was a close second. And everybody liked his brother William too. He's eight now.

- Dave Cute.
 Olivia Here's my mum Cynthia, my dad Tony and my grandpa Roger.
 Dave Wow, you really look like William.
 Olivia William? My cousin.
 Dave Oh, no, Tony. Sorry.
 Olivia My dad, and not my mum! Thanks!

- Liam There's a new Italian restaurant in town. It's great.
 Rachel Really? Where is it?
 Liam Well, it's not far from the river, between a French and a Mexican place I think.
 Rachel Oh, do you mean the one in River Street?
 Liam No, that's not an Italian place.
 Rachel Ah, OK. Is it in the High Street then?
 Liam No, it's near the river, but not in River Street.
 Rachel Ah, I know. It's in Bridge Street, isn't it?
 Liam Yes, that's right.
 Rachel I was there last week. I think it was Wednesday, no, no, no, it was closer to the weekend. Friday evening, that's right. It was really crowded. There were loads of people there.
 Liam What's the food like?
 Rachel It's good. They do really good pizzas. The four cheese pizza is wonderful.
 Liam What about dessert?
 Rachel The ice cream's good. They've got lots of different flavours. The pineapple one is delicious.
 Liam And is it expensive?
 Rachel It was less than £10, and more than 9. I paid £9.50.
 Liam Was that with a drink?
 Rachel Yes, an orange juice.
 Liam Yes, that's a good price. So anyway, why were you there?
 Rachel It was my birthday.
 Liam Oh, let me guess. You went with your family, and it was in the afternoon.
 Rachel Almost – I was there with some friends, and it was the evening.

Emily On the news they are asking for money to help all those people who haven't got anywhere to live.
Dan I saw that. You know what? We should do something.
Emily What? Send some money?
Dan Yes but not just a few pounds. Let's do something to raise a lot of money.
Emily Do you think we could?
Dan Of course we could.
Emily But how?
Dan Well, let's think. I know. Why don't we get all our old toys and sell them?
Emily Hmm. I'm not so sure.
Dan Why not?
Emily Well most of my old toys are broken or there are bits missing. I don't think we'd make much money.
Dan That's true. In fact I don't think I have any of my old toys. OK umm.
Emily How about going round to people's houses and washing their cars for them?
Dan I don't think that's a good idea.
Emily Why not?
Dan Most people wash their cars at the car wash. I don't think they'd want to pay us.
Emily So what can we do?
Dan I know! We could organise a rock festival at the school.
Emily What!? Are you crazy?
Dan No, I'm not. There are at least three bands at our school, maybe more. We just ask them to play for free and then charge people £5 to come and watch them.
Emily Where?
Dan On the school football pitch. Let's ask the headmaster. I'm sure he'll say 'yes'. I think it's a great idea.
Emily You know what? Let's do it. It will be much more fun than washing cars for sure.

Jack Hi, Samantha, good book?
Samantha Oh, this. It's a lovely book. It's about a man and his friend Bob.
Jack OK.
Samantha Bob's a cat.
Jack A man and his friend ... a cat? I don't think I'd find that very interesting.

Samantha Well, I'm not sure. It's a really interesting story, you know. About this guy – his name's James Bowen. He is, or was, a street musician in London, you know, the kind of person who sits on a street corner, playing his guitar, hoping to get a bit of money so he can buy food, and survive, you know.
Jack OK, and where does the cat come in?
Samantha Well, one day James Bowen was out on the streets playing his guitar, you know, and then he saw this cat. The cat was a bit injured erm it had a problem with one leg, and seemed hungry and not in a very good condition. Anyway, when James got on the erm the underground to go home that day, the cat followed him. So James took it home and gave it food, and called it Bob. And, Bob never left him again.
Jack Really?
Samantha That's right. So the street musician and his cat became best friends, you know. And he says that the cat changed his life, really.
Jack Changed his life? How can a cat change a man's life?
Samantha Well, the guy wasn't very happy. He had no money, and no real hope, you know, for the future. Then when people saw him, they became interested in the street musician and his cat, you know. So more people stopped, listened to his music, and gave him a bit of money. And finally James Bowen decided to write a book about his friendship with the cat, and how his life changed because of it. And that's the book I'm reading, A Street Cat Named Bob.
Jack That is an interesting story. Is it a successful book?
Samantha You bet. I've forgotten the exact number now, but I think about one million people bought the book. And they are maybe making a film about the man and his friend, the cat. They are both very famous now.
Jack Wow. That's just amazing. You know, I'm not normally interested in animal stories, but I think I'd like to read this book too.
Samantha No problem. You can have it as soon as I finish it.
Jack Oh, Samantha, I've got to go.
Samantha Where are you going?
Jack I'm going to look for a new friend. A cat!

 Abigail Oh! And what did your mum give you? Some money?
 Kevin No, she bought me these trainers? Do you like them?
 Abigail They're cool. Did your dad buy you anything?
 Kevin Well, he often gives me tickets for a football match, and then I go to see the match with him. He likes that. But this year he got me a laptop. I love it.
 Abigail Wow! And what about your aunt? She makes really good cakes, doesn't she?
 Kevin Yes, she usually bakes me a cake. But this time she gave me thirty pounds. She told me to buy something nice for myself.

 Charlotte Uh huh. And is that Lily?
 Christian Lily?
 Charlotte Yes, look there. The girl with the green belt.
 Christian Oh, she looks like Lily, You're right. No, Lily wasn't there actually. I think she's in China at the moment. The girl with the green belt is Olivia.
 Charlotte Ah, OK. And is that Cynthia? Oh, the last time I saw her she was only a little girl.
 Christian Yeah, I know. Guess what? She's got three children, and she's become a real lady. Look, that's her in the white trousers.
 Charlotte And this must be Sylvia. The one in the black shorts.

My bedroom, yes, I really like my bedroom. It's quite big and that's nice, of course.
 The walls are blue, I like that because it's a nice cheerful colour. And I like the wood floor – some people like carpet but I love wood floors. And there's my desk, near the window, it's easy to work there! I like it because I can see the garden when I'm at my desk. And there's a nice big wardrobe too. Before, I had a wardrobe with one door, beside my bed, but two weeks ago my dad put a new wardrobe on the other wall, it's bigger, two doors and there's more room inside. I was lucky because for my birthday, my grandparents were very generous, they gave me some money, they said, 'Use it to get a bigger wardrobe!' They knew I didn't like the old one very much! That's because I said it every time they came to our house!
 You know, I thought my sister was going to be very jealous of my new wardrobe, but she isn't! She's very cool about it!

Interviewer Excuse me. Could I ask you a few questions?
Girl Sure.
Interviewer What do you think of the new sports centre?
Girl I think it's brilliant. It's absolutely amazing. It looks great too.
Interviewer Why do you think that?
Girl Well, I love sport so it's great to have such a good place to do the sports I love and maybe try some new ones too.
Interviewer What sports do you do?
Girl I play tennis and volleyball. And I do a bit of gymnastics too.
Interviewer And what sports do you want try out there.
Girl Well, I'd love to do some rock-climbing and they've got an amazing climbing wall there. That's something I'm definitely interested in trying out. But I also want to do some water sports too. The lake they've got is wonderful. I want to go sailing and do some windsurfing too.
Interviewer So you're happy about the sports centre?
Girl Happy? Absolutely. It's a great thing for this town.
Interviewer Excuse me. Have you got a few minutes. I'd like to ask you a few questions.
Boy OK, but can you be quick. I haven't got long.
Interviewer Sure. How do you feel about the new sports centre?
Boy The new sports centre? I think it's a waste of money.
Interviewer Really.
Boy Yes, there are much better things to spend our money on.

Interviewer So you don't like sport?
 Boy No, I like some sports. I play golf, for example and I go skiing and snowboarding but I can't do those at the sports centre.
 Interviewer That's true.
 Boy And I think it's really ugly too. It looks horrible.
 Interviewer So you're not a fan.
 Boy No, not at all. Now I'm sorry but I have to go.
 Interviewer Sure and thanks.

You will hear a woman, Sally, asking about a women's football team. Listen and complete each question.

Sally Hi, Katie. Are you busy?
 Katie No, Sally. How can I help you?
 Sally It's about that football team you play for.
 Katie AFC Women's football club. Are you interested in joining?
 We always need new players.
 Sally Actually I am but I just wanted to ask you a few questions.
 Katie No problem. What do you want to know?
 Sally Well, how often do you train?
 Katie Just once a week. On a Thursday. We meet at 7 pm. No sorry. I mean 7.30 pm.
 Sally And that's it?
 Katie Yes, of course we have games most Sundays but training's just on the Thursday evenings.
 Sally And how much does it cost?
 Katie It was £2.50 but it went up last month so now we pay £3 a week.
 Sally OK. That's not expensive at all. So what do I need to do if I want to join?
 Katie You need to talk to the coach John Marzetti.
 Sally Marzetti? How do you spell that?
 Katie It's M - A - R - Z - E - T - T - I and his phone number is ... just let me check on my phone. Ah here it is - 0799 6321 887
 Sally Let me just read that back. 0799 6321 887.
 Katie That's right but do phone him. It'll be fun having you in the team.

You will hear a man talking about the London Olympic stadium. Listen and complete each question.

Hello and welcome to the Olympic stadium. I'm sure you all recognise it from the 2012 London Olympic and Paralympic Games, where most of the athletic events took place. The stadium is about 10 km away from Central London but only a 6-minute ride from London's St Pancras Railway station. Work started on the stadium on the 22nd of May 2008 and it finished three years later in 2011. The first official event to take place here was a celebrity running race in March 2012 just five months before the start of the Olympic games. It wasn't cheap to build. In fact the total cost of the stadium was £486 million pounds. The stadium can hold 80,000 people, making it the third biggest stadium in the UK. Only Wembley and Twickenham are bigger.

 Lucy I'm just going to the gym. I've got a lesson.
 Dad But it's Monday, you don't have swimming lessons on a Monday.
 Lucy I know. It's a new class. I want to try rock climbing.
 Dad Really. So what time's the lesson?
 Lucy It starts at three.
 Dad But it's only one. You don't have to leave now.
 Lucy I know. But I want to do some gym first.
 Dad I've got a better idea. I'd like you to tidy up a bit first.
 Lucy Oh, Dad!
 Dad Well you shouldn't make such a mess. Your things are all over the house. I almost fell over your hairdryer on the way to the bathroom and then I almost broke your MP3 player when I got there. It was on the side of the bath and I sat on it when I was brushing my teeth. And your calculator was on the stairs.
 Lucy OK, OK. I'll go and get them.
 Dad And then you can tidy the living room. There are magazines all over the table. You can take the games console off the floor and put it away. And then tidy up around the docking station. It's a mess there.
 Lucy OK!
 Dad That shouldn't take more than five minutes. And then you can come and help me in the garden.
 Lucy What!
 Dad I need to cut some wood for the fire. You can help me. It's good exercise. Then you don't need to go to the gym.

3 She's going to suggest that they all go on holiday to the hotel together. 4 She says the grandparents are going to spend two weeks on a houseboat. 5 In two weeks' time.

Audio Script Track 46

1 What kind of holiday is Emma going to suggest to her parents?

Mike Erm ... Emma, we're going to that hotel again for the holidays.

Emma What? The same one as last year? Boring.

Mike I agree. It would be much better to go camping somewhere.

Emma Camping? Well, I'm not sure. What if it rains? Then camping is worse than staying at that hotel again for two weeks. But I've got an idea.

Mike What's that?

Emma I'm going to talk to Mum and Dad. I'm going to make a suggestion.

Mike Oh yeah?

Emma Yes, how about a holiday in a houseboat on a canal somewhere?

Mike That would be the best holiday ever!

2 Who's got the best idea about what they can do?

Dad Well, a holiday on a houseboat is an excellent idea, but it's too late for that now, sorry. We're going to the same hotel this year as last year. It's booked.

Emma Oh, Dad, come on. Is there nothing you can do? You've always got great ideas.

Dad Sorry, there's nothing we can do.

Mike I haven't got any ideas either.

Mum Hey, Jim, why don't we ask our parents?

Dad Our parents?

Mum Yes, my parents and your parents. When we showed them the photos of the hotel last year, they really liked it. I'm going to talk to them. Maybe they can go together.

Mike Wow, thanks, Mum. What a great idea.

Dad But listen, they might say no, OK?

Emma Sure. Then we can go to the hotel again. And next year ...

Mike We're going to go on a houseboat!

All Yes. Definitely.

3 When are Emma and her family going on holiday?

Mum Emma? Mike? I've got news for you.

Emma Coming, Mum.

Mum Listen. I've spoken to your grandparents.

Mike And?

Mum They are starting their holiday on the 18th of July. And they are going to go on holiday together.

Emma OK ... And erm ... where are they going?

Mum They're going to spend two weeks ... on a houseboat.

Emma/Mike What?

Mum No, I'm joking ... they're going to spend two weeks ... in ... the ... hotel where we wanted to stay!

Mike Seriously? That's fantastic.
Mum And I spoke to the people who rent out the houseboats. We can't go on the 18th of July. The boats are all booked out. But the 4th of July, or the 8th of August are possible. So Dad and I talked about this ... we're going on the 4th of July.
